The Christian Walk- How Should I Live for God

Lesson #2

How Should We Live for God in a Difficult World?

Now that you have a relationship with God through Jesus Christ, how does someone keep it right and maintain the relationship?

1. Should we expect trials and tough times (1 Peter 4:12-13) (yes or no)?
2. Should we expect challenging times (2 Timothy 3:1) (yes or no)?
3. What promise did Jesus give us (John 16:33)?

What Am I Allowed to Do?

1. Now that I am a Christian, should I do whatever I want (1 Corinthians 6:12) (yes or no)?
2. Now that I am a Christian, should I do whatever I want (Galatians 5:13-14) (yes or no)?
3. Are there consequences for my actions (Galatians 6:7-9) (yes or no)?

Take Up Your Cross

1. What are we as followers of Jesus supposed to do (Matthew 16:24-25)?
2. Who are we crucified with (Galatians 2:20)?
3. What purpose does our cross have (Galatians 6:14)?

Water Baptism

1. When Jesus was baptized, he said that it was the right thing to do (Matthew 3:15). Read Romans 6:4 and answer the questions below.
 - a. Who are we buried with?
 - b. Who was raised from the dead?
 - c. How shall we walk after water baptism?
2. Does water baptism mean that we are just cleaning up the outside of our bodies (1 Peter 3:21) (yes or no)?
3. The Great Commission was the instructions that Jesus gave to all of His believers before he ascended into heaven (Matthew 28:18-20). What are we to do with all nations (verses 19-20)?

I need a show of hands... who likes to get up early in the morning? Oh I can just imagine that everyone is just so awake, chipper, and happy first thing every morning. I'll bet we all like to go to bed really early as well-huh?

Life is about habits. We are creatures of habit. Almost everything we do is predictable because we are consistent in our habits. Habits lead to life in a rut. Even good habits that are not being strengthened will breed the disease of complacency. Allow God to shape you in all your ways. It's life changing!
