Major Bible Themes

- A. What is one word that describes a major theme throughout the New Testament (1 John 4:8-11)?

When was the last time you got mail? Something with a stamp on it sent to your attention such as a letter, invitation, or a card?

I always liked going to the mailbox as a kid and finding something in there for me. My parents would sift through the mail, which were mostly advertisements or bills. They hated getting mail, and now I know why.

Our Father wrote the Bible to us as a letter of love, encouragement and guidance. Think of it as His personal invitation to get to know you. He cares.
