God is sovereign in salvation. The believer is not called to salvation because of his or her own worthiness but because of God's purpose and grace (Ephesians 1:13-14).

Humans have a responsibility to this salvation. God extends this invitation to everyone. This desire for all people to be saved is expressed clearly (2 Peter 3:9 and Romans 10:11).

- A. Realizing that God has chosen YOU for salvation, how should you respond (Romans 12:1-2)?
- B. What is the wrong response?
 1. Romans 6:1 –
 2. Hebrews 3:15 –

Work with me here: Climb up on a chair, no-better yet, climb up on your kitchen counter top. That's right. Go do it now and take this lesson with you. Stand up straight, close your eyes and jump as though you were diving into a pool...

STUPID IDEA!! I know that you are smarter than that. You wouldn't just go about life doing whatever anyone told you to do.

Likewise, your relationship with Christ will give you confidence and boldness as you develop into your true identity in Him. Dive in and go deeper!
