

The High-est Power

“For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place...” Isaiah 57:15

Alcoholics Anonymous is a program that helps a person to admit that they cannot help themselves out their crisis and to look to a greater power for assistance.

What does the higher power do? What purpose does it have? It offers guidance, inner strength, peace, and support.

Throughout the history of the world people have had numerous religions; thousands of faiths to provide hope, meaning, and bring favor to their lives.

So what happens when the “higher power” is not high enough? What a Dilemma!

Who is the Ultimate Higher Power? The Book of Revelation reveals a striking “high and holy” vision in 1:9-20. It is a picture of Jesus Christ- not as a carpenter walking through the dusty streets of Galilee, but rather as a radiant conquering King of Kings! In chapter 4:11 Jesus is the object of heaven’s worship. The scene is quite intense.

Now let’s go back to the verse listed at the beginning of this article, Isaiah 57:15 and focus in on the ending words:

“For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.” Isaiah 57:15

This same Awesome Eternal God wants to dwell, live with, and abide with His humble believers to bring refreshing revival to their hearts! What an amazing statement! What an amazing invitation for you and I!
